Rochester Raging Rhinos vs. Montreal Impact Friday, July 12, 1996 Rhinos' Inaugural Match At Frontier Field

Ladies and Gentlemen, tonight you are part of history as your Rochester Raging Rhinos play in the first-ever sporting event at Frontier Field! A crowd of over 14,000 rowdy fans is expected to set the A-League single-game attendance record. The Rochester Rage Dance Team and a very special guest will make their debut as well.

The first-place Montreal Impact look to play the role of spoiler this evening. The Raging Rhinos suffered two tough early-season losses to the Impact (2-0, 0-0 reg. 3-2 SO) in the teams' first home-and-home series. Making Wednesday night's meeting between the two teams a grudge match. Former Rhino Gustavo Romanello, who did not score during his stint in Rochester, open the scoring in 41st minute in his first appearance for Montreal. Onandi Lowe ruined the Raging Rhinos chances for back-to-back wins, assisting on Lloyd Barker's goal in the 62nd minute. Later, Lowe slam the door shut on Rochester beating Billy Andracki to net his first goal of the season.

Leading the Impact into battle this evening is goalkeeper, Paolo Ceccarelli and midfielder, Mauro Biello. Ceccarelli leads the A-League in GAA (0.49) and shutouts (6). Ceccarelli has been superhuman against the Rhinos blanketed them for 19 saves and 3 shutouts in the teams previous meetings. Biello is tied for third in the league in scoring (4g+2a=10pts).

The Raging Rhinos have failed to stampede out of their scoring slump with only 3 goals in their past three games. Forwards Lenin Steenkamp and Doug Miller are trying to kick-start Rochester's charge to the net. Steenkamp has stretch the twine five times this season to secure a share of third spot in the scoring race, and Miller has netted twice in the past three matches. Sweeper Hector Marinaro continues to lead the Rhinos in scoring with seven points (2g, 3a).

The frustrations of Rhino goalkeeper Billy Andracki continue to build. Andracki, who by all accounts has equaled the play of those considered to be the league's top shot stoppers, has failed to see the same success statistically. Andracki ranks eighth in GAA (1.84) and has recorded only one shutout. The highlight of Rochester's five-game road trip was Billy's eight saves in regulation and six shootout stops versus Atlanta on Sunday to secure the team's 3-2 win.

Andracki, like his Rhino teammates, hopes that his new Frontier Field surroundings will signify a fresh start that leads to a playoff spot, which despite Rochester's struggles is still only three wins away.
